Waiver of Liability

The team and players listed below and the players' parents and/or guardians release the Dunkirk Warriors Boys and Girls Club, their officers, administrators, volunteers and sponsors from any claims, actions, cause of actions, suits, judgments, and demands arising directly or indirectly in connection with a player's participation in the Dunkirk Warriors Scoop a Thon Lacrosse Tournament on May 18 and 19, 2013. The team, players, parents and guardians are aware of the risks with participating in a lacrosse event. All participating players are in good health and able to participate in the scheduled games and other tournament activities.

By signing below, acknowledgement is given that this form has been read and understood, and the terms herein are contractual.
