Unlike many of our competitors, LeagueAthletics.com does not lock you in to a long-term contract.

Improve Your Club's Communications

We offer customized email blasts that can be sent to your entire club or to almost any sub-group of members within your club, such as parents, coaches, board members and players. We also offer email broadcasts of news articles created on your home page, as well as team, coaches' and officials' bulletins along with discussion forums.

Live Scheduling

The LeagueAthletics.com "Live" scheduling feature will automatically generate an email, and, at the members request, a text message, any time there is a schedule change or game cancellation. This eliminates the need for time consuming and ineffective "phone trees".
