CAMP STAFF

“LEARN THE FINE POINTS OF THE PASSING GAME FROM COACHES WITH YEARS OF SUCCESSFUL EXPERIENCE”

KEVIN CARTY

Coach Carty, the head coach at Hillsborough HS, was a State Championship and Parade All-American QB at Somerville HS, played at UNC and William and Mary, and finished with 2 seasons of Arena Football. In just 12 seasons of coaching HS QBs, he has coached 4 who earned full scholarships, 2 who have led NJ in passing yardage, and 5 who have been named All-State. In his previous 11 seasons as a head coach, he has started 10 QBs who have led the team to 7 playoff seasons (including the first time since 1971 at Bound Brook) by throwing 192 TD passes combined. Six of these QBs have been named All-County or Conference!

KEVIN CARTY, SR.

Coach Carty, a member of the NJSIAA Hall of Fame, has 45 years coaching experience in both high school and college, including 6 years at Rutgers, where he coached wide receivers. In the process of winning 2 State Championships in his 23 years of high school coaching, he has coached 6 QBs and over 11 WRs who received Division 1/1-AA scholarships. In 2001, he coached his son Ryan to break the New Jersey record with 43 TD passes in one season. Coach Carty has also worked privately with numerous other successful high school and college QBs. Coach Carty is currently defensive coordinator for the Hillsborough High School.

SEAN CARTY

Sean was an All-State receiver at Somerville H.S., and he earned a scholarship to Rutgers University. He was a four-year letterwinner at wide receiver and punt returner for the Scarlet Knights. Sean has coached receivers in camps throughout the Northeast with several NFL stars, including LJ Smith and DeSean Jackson. He has worked as director of speed and agility for a major gym, and has coached both football and track at Bound Brook. In just five years of coaching WRs there, 4 of his athletes received full scholarships and 1 led the state in receiving yards, by a 200 yard margin. He is currently the wide receivers coach at Hillsborough High School.
