

Division: Mite C
Saturday, October 29th – The Olympia, West Springfield
Westfield 17 Nonotuck 11

The Westfield Mite 3's used an explosive offensive performance to hold off the Nonotuck Knights this past Saturday at the Olympia Ice Arena 17-11. The scoring was led by Cody Collins (4), Brody Fitzgerald (3), and Casey Scanlon (3). All told, seven different Westfield players were able to get the puck past the Knight's netminder displaying their teamwork and skill. After an even start, Westfield was able to put the game out of reach with a nine unanswered goal outburst midway through the contest. Utilizing his cat-like quickness between the pipes, goaltender Hunter Stockseth turned away several great scoring bids by the Knights, keeping the cheering fans on the edge of their seats and preserving the win.

Division: Squirt B
Saturday, October 29th – Amelia Park, Westfield
Westfield 5 Brattleboro (VT) 1

The Westfield Squirt B team started the season with a 5-1 win against Brattleboro. The scoring started at the 1:40 mark with a goal by Reid Hannan assisted by Branden Waitt. Nick Ensign stole the puck from a Brattleboro player and scored Westfield's second goal on a break-away at the 6:54 mark. A third goal came 23 seconds later by Brian Daly assisted by Nick Ensign. Cam Porter and Thea Glenzel made some great stops on the defensive side of the first period.

The second period started just like the first one. At the 1:37 mark a backhanded goal by Ciro Calvanese assisted by Aidan Fitzgerald made the score 4-0. An unfortunate bounce by a Brattleboro shot made the score 4-1. Aidan Fitzgerald scored the last goal in the third period at the 2:59 mark with the assist coming from Ciro Calvanese. The defensive play of Connor Fitzgerald and Alex Fisher also helped with the final outcome. Pat Martell also contributed by his hard heads up play. CJ Czarnecki made a total of 6 saves in all to notch his first victory of the season.

Division: Squirt A
Saturday, October 29th – Amelia Park, Westfield
Westfield 2 Holy Name 1

Westfield Squirt A faced a very tough Holy Name team at Amelia Park in their first regular season game and came away with a hard fought 2-1 victory.

Nick Mee opened the scoring for Westfield in the first period on a nice assist from fellow line-mate Colin Scanlon. Tanner Koziol created a 2-0 cushion in the second period on an unassisted breakaway goal. Holy Name scored halfway through the period to slice the lead in half 2-1, which is how the game ended.

Cam Schnopp tended net for Westfield and turned away 6 of 7 shots. Westfield barraged the Holy Name goaltender with 17 shots. Strong defensive play by Jordan Kowalski, Austin Wolfe and Ryan Roskey kept Holy Name from putting any significant pressure on Schnopp. Offensive chances were created by Ryan Moorhouse, Matt Bacon, Danny Buckelew, Bailey Tymeson, James Ackerman and Jason Rokosz that tested Holy Name at every turn.

Division: Pee wee A
Saturday, October 29th – Mullins Arena, Amherst
Westfield 3 Amherst 1

Westfield Pee wee A got off to a great start in their first regular season game with a 3-1 road win over Amherst on Saturday, October 29th. Westfield played shorthanded for the entire game – being down three players from their normal roster. The team got off to a slow start as the game was scoreless midway through the second period.

Jagger Turgeon broke the ice for Westfield midway through the second, scoring an unassisted goal on a nifty shot from twenty-five feet out. Turgeon scored his second goal of the contest nearly two minutes later putting the road team up 2-0 heading into the third period. Defenseman Connor Koziol and forward Alex Beauchemin provided the assists on Turgeon's second tally.

In the third period, Westfield's Travis McCassey picked up a rebound in front of the Amherst net and buried the insurance goal for a 3-0 lead with four minutes left in the game. Winger Alex Beauchemin notched his second assist on McCassey's goal along with Turgeon, his third point of the game. Amherst scored with three minutes left in the game to break goalie Cam Parent's bid for his first shutout.

The defensive play of defensemen Nate Boucher, Sullivan Webster, and Connor Koziol limited Parent's activity to 5 saves as Westfield notched their first win in the very young GSL season.
