Franklin County 5 Westfield Jr. Bombers 1

Westfield faced the Franklin County skaters for the second weekend in a row and once again ended up stymied by good fore checking and goaltending by the northerners. Justin Oski, Brandon Laviolette, and Nate Gendron all made good early offensive efforts, but Franklin County was first on the board by forcing a rebound past goalie Matt Brady to make it 1-0. Johnny Pitoniak made a long rush but was stopped by the Franklin netminder. In the second period a Franklin County slapper from the point deflected up off Brady's stick and behind him into the goal. In the second frame Dan Antonellis, Nick Chepurin, and Sarah Labbe all tried to puncture the Franklin armor but without success. In the meantime, defensemen Pitoniak, Charlie Bonatakis, Tyler Bennett, and Jack Labbe had their hands full with the swarming hordes from the north. A turnover led to a shorthanded goal for Franklin County, but Spencer Cloutier got Westfield on the board with a gorgeous solo goal, a crafty deke maneuver, and so it stood 3-1. In the third period, however, the cookie, or one might say the hockey puck, started to crumble rather badly, and some dubious calls didn't help matters. But ample credit goes to Franklin County for their vigorous attack, and to Westfield for hanging tough and showing they are no doormats.
