The next two goals came from the Amherst team making the score 2 to 1 Amherst. The third period started just like the second ended with Amherst scoring their third goal of the game. WTM 4 Westfield Jr. Bombers 2

Goalie Matt Brady made several brilliant saves early in the game, showing everyone he had certainly had his Wheaties that morning. On the offensive front Justin Oski made several good efforts, showing his patented wasplike pestering abilities. Nate Gendron and Dan Antonellis also helped the Westfield onslaught, but WTM showed resilience and came back and scored twice to take a 2-0 lead. Any fans who left early would have been proved fools, however, for late in the third period Nick Chepurin, a forward with explosive speed who appears to live by the motto of "no fear," made a spectacular goal to get Westfield back in the game. Meanwhile, the defensive forces, including Tyler Bennett and Jack Labbe, helped keep WTM in their place. Westfield made it 3-2 when John Pitoniak carried the puck deep into the corner and fed Charlie Bonatakis with a quick pass, then over to Spencer Cloutier for the goal. WTM, though, kept trying to hammer nails into the coffin and despite Brady's valiant efforts to fend off the swarm, WTM poked in a rebound for the final score of 4-2. Shots on goal: Westfield 23, WTM 17.

Holy Name 6 Westfield Jr. Bombers 0

Once again goalie Matt Brady showed he doesn't like things getting ugly early—when a Holy Name breakaway turned into the road to nowhere. That was just one of many key saves. Brandon Laviolette was aggressive in the neutral zone and Jack Labbe claimed the territory along the boards as his own when Holy Name tried to move up. Sara Labbe proved fearless in some blue line battles and maneuvered with grace around the enemy forces. The Holy Name goalie was holding his own the whole time, though, and some defensive breakdowns by Westfield led to a 6-0 loss. Shots on goal: Westfield 13, Holy Name 21.
