www.healthyohioprogram.org/concussion

Ohio's return-to-play law goes into effect on April 26th, 2013

Ideally, parents who have received and reviewed the ODH concussion information sheet will recognize the signs and symptoms of a possible concussion. However, coaches, referees (and officials in the case of youth sports organizations) are responsible for removing an athlete from play if he or she shows the signs and symptoms of a concussion – even if a parent or the player disagrees (ORC 3313.539 and ORC 3707.511). The athlete is not permitted to return to play on the same day as he/she is removed.

19. What are the signs, symptoms, or behaviors consistent with having sustained a concussion or head injury?

Athletes do not have to be “knocked out” to have a concussion. In fact, less than 1 out of 10 concussions result in loss of consciousness. Concussion symptoms can develop right away or up to 48 hours after the injury. Ignoring any signs or symptoms of a concussion puts a child's health at risk!

Signs Observed by Parents of Guardians:

- Nausea or vomiting.
- Balance problems or dizziness.
- Double or blurry vision.
- Sensitivity to light and/or noise
- Feeling sluggish, hazy, foggy or groggy.
- Concentration or memory problems.
- Confusion.
- Does not “feel right.”

- Sleeping more or less than usual.

20. Are there any resources available for health care providers on clearing an athlete to return to play?

Ohio's return-to-play law goes into effect on April 26th, 2013

21. Are there any resources available for parents, coaches, teachers and school administrators to help students return to school after sustaining a concussion?

Nationwide Children's Hospital offers a number of resources to educate parents, coaches, teachers and school administrators about the signs, symptoms, treatment and management of concussions. These materials can be accessed here: <http://www.nationwidechildrens.org/concussion-toolkit>

22. Does the law apply to out of state coaches and referees?

If an individual from out-of-state is to coach or referee for an Ohio youth sports organization in Ohio, then that individual must comply with Ohio law, including presenting evidence of successfully completing the concussion and head injury recognition training program identified by the Ohio Department of Health and removing an athlete from practice or play if they exhibit the signs and symptoms of a concussion.

23. What do youth sports organizations have to do to comply with the training requirements under the law?

The youth sports organization for which the individual intends to act as a coach or referee shall inform the individual of the requirement described in Ohio law.
