Following the Code of Conduct

Volunteers approved for participation in the program are required to sign a formal Code of Conduct governing behavior within the program at all times. The Code of Conduct must be reviewed, signed and submitted on the first day of practice along with all players, parents and volunteers. The Code of Conduct is on the Carmel Rams Youth Lacrosse website, www.crylax.org.

Applicants selected for coaching positions will be required to register with US Lacrosse and consent to participate in local clinics or seminars provided by SUNY Youth Sports prior to start of pre-season. This is mandatory for all coaches regardless of past coaching experience.

Applicants may also submit references or letters of recommendation for consideration if they so choose. All correspondence should be sent to:

Carmel Rams Youth Lacrosse
PO Box 537
Carmel, NY 10512

Application Process

Following the approval of a candidate's application and a background check, a list of approved candidates will be created. Assistant coaches will be provided to the head coaches who will determine staff size and select individual assistant coaches.

Variable roster size is factored into the decision of how many coaches are selected at each level. Coaching assignments will be listed on the Carmel Rams Youth Lacrosse website, no later than February 15. All coaching assignments and appointments are subject to approval of the executive board.

I hereby certify that the facts set forth in this coaching application are true and correct to the best of my knowledge. I understand that if I falsify statements on this coaching application, I may not be considered for coaching duties. I hereby authorize the CRYLAX League or its representatives to conduct an investigation into my background history to verify the above information.
