

Mason Comets Touchdown Club Minutes

September 8, 2014

The meeting was brought to order by President Doug Besecker in the Harvard Room at the High School. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved by Ron Saresky and Doug Bruser. No treasurer report was given.

Old/New Business:

Coaches Report: Coach Boring reported that the MMS teams were doing well and the 7th and 8th grade white teams were 2-0 and the 7th/8th green teams were 1-1. He thanked the TDC for all their new equipment, helmets and jerseys. They are also enjoying all the Quatman's sandwiches each week.

Coach Mullins reported that the varsity and JV teams looked good and they were cautiously optimistic about the Winton Woods game and that this is the last game before conference play. He said the team is coming together and working hard. Coach stated that they are discussing each day, actions and consequences in lieu of the recent parties and disciplinary actions. He discussed the team's academics and said the first 30 minutes every day before practice is mandatory study tables. High priority players will spend time with Coach Mullins for more one on one instruction and tutoring in order to get their grades up. He also thanked the TDC for all he hard work supporting the team and really appreciated all the equipment, food and drinks provided for the team. Currently there are about 10-11 injured reserved.

Event Committee: Edie Stewart reported for Jackie Quigley that Frickers was providing the team meal on Friday and that the Heritage Day Parade was Sept. 13. Varsity players will be fed bacon and egg biscuits after lifting ad film before the parade. Freshman players will report to the staging area and all should wear their green jerseys and black shorts. JV players will be at their game at Winter Woods. Sandra Peters has donated mini footballs that will be handed out during the parade.

Concessions: Andrea Carskadden reported that the Atrium stand will sell souvenir cups that can be used at Thrifty's for a free soft drink on Fridays during the season. Signup for volunteers is on sign up genius and volunteers are still needed. Please check he site and sign up to help.

Comet Cards: Doug Besecker reported that the Comet Card recognition dinner was on Wednesday in the small commons. Players that sold all their cards enjoyed a meal of prime rib, mac and cheese and dessert. Others had hot dogs and chips. There was lots of positive feedback from players and parents. There are still comet cards outstanding and Aubrey Pitts has volunteered to sell cards at the next home game. If you still have outstanding cards please turn them in at the next TDC meeting or tailgates before the game to any board member.

MABA: Ron Saresky said they still need a secretary and a treasurer. Let him know if you are interested. They meet the third Monday at 6:30 in the KIVA at MHS.

Tailgate Night: Sept. 12 is Tailgate/Little Comet Night. Thirsty's will be selling funnel fries and the TDC will have a kicking net and mini footballs donated by Sandra Peters. Freshman players and parents are manning the tent.

Split the Pot: No one claimed the winning ticket so it will be added to the next pot if not claimed at the next home game. Doug Besecker is in charge of securing volunteers from the senior class for Friday night's game. Volunteers get there at 6:15 and sell from 7:30-7:30. They also sell at the end of the first and second quarter. The winner will be announced at the third quarter.

Yard Signs: If you ordered a yard sign please mail Kelly Blackwell a check at 3438 Strata Court, Mason. Her email is mgbklb@hotmail.com if you have any questions.

The next meeting will be Sept. 15 at 7pm in the Harvard Room.

Motion to adjourn was made by Deb Stamper and seconded by Ron Saresky.
