

WILTON LACROSSE

This Week in Wilton Lacrosse – May 1, 2017

The spring season is in full swing – there are games nearly every day. The girls varsity has their big showdown with Darien at home on Thursday night after only one game last week, a win over St Joe’s. Boys varsity has two away games this week and hopes to rebound from a loss to rival John Jay last Friday night. On both sides, the JV and freshmen teams continue their seasons. Up next week we will be celebrating Senior night on May 8th for the girls and May 11th for the boys. Mark your calendars.

Boys youth played the CT-NJ challenge last Sunday against teams from Mountain Lakes, Ridgewood, Summit and Chatham. The quality of play was high and despite a long day fun was had by all. Girls youth continued their season with their busiest week yet as the weather turns a bit warmer.

The college regular season is mostly over with only league playoff games remaining before the NCAA tournament starts in two weeks. The Ivy League, the Big Ten, NESCAC, Liberty League amongst others will all hold their league playoffs this weekend. Most games can be seen on ESPN or streamed online. Selection Sunday is this Sunday and a number of Wilton alumni will be eagerly looking to see if their team will make the tournament.
