

LGSL Code of Sportsmanship Conduct and Discipline

A. PURPOSE

To promote sportsmanship in LGSL and to provide a mechanism for dealing with players, coaches, and spectators, who violate the LGSL Code of Sportsmanship.

LGSL is dedicated to the development of leadership skills, character, and athletic skills for young girls within the Community. As such, LGSL has partnered with and is committed to the principles of the Positive Coaching Alliance (PCA). We expect our coaches to be Double-Goal Coaches, who strive to win (one goal), while pursuing the more-important goal of teaching life lessons through sports. We expect our parents to be Second-Goal Parents, focused on the goal of using sports to teach life lessons, while leaving the goal of winning to players and coaches. Parents will use positive encouragement to fill the Emotional Tanks of their children, their teammates, and coaches. We expect our players to Honor the Game by having respect for Rules, Opponents, Officials, Teammates, and one's Self.

The President of LGSL shall be designated as the Sportsmanship Director. The Director will be responsible for promoting sportsmanship within LGSL and for the review of violations of the LGSL Code of Sportsmanship.

Authority To Take Disciplinary Action. In accordance with section C. below, disciplinary action may be taken by a Committee appointed by the Director against any player, spectator, team official, or team, which fails to abide by the LGSL Code of Sportsmanship. The Sportsmanship Director will initiate a Committee review only upon the request of the House or Travel League Directors when the Committee is acting pursuant to section C 2-5 below, a minimum of three (3) members, including the Sportsmanship Director, must be involved. A member of the Committee must be nominated by the House or Travel League Directors from which the alleged violation arose. Any other member(s) of the Committee must be members of the Board of Directors. The Sportsmanship Director shall keep appropriate records of all such actions and those records, along with the LGSL Code of Sportsmanship, may be the basis for future disciplinary actions.

B. LGSL CODE OF SPORTSMANSHIP

Consistent with these objectives, conveying messages of good sportsmanship directly through teaching and indirectly through role models provided by both coaches and parents is critical to our programs.

It is with this in mind that we, as parents, coaches, and players, commit to encouraging (1) fair play, (2) respect for all participants on both sides of the competition, and (3) respect for the game officials.

Therefore, it shall be a violation of the LGSL Code of Sportsmanship for any coach, team official, player, or spectator during or immediately following any LGSL competition to:

LGSL COACHING PHILOSOPHY

COACHING OF PARTICIPANTS WILL BE IN ACCORD WITH LGSL AND THE PCA PHILOSOPHY. WINNING IS AN IMPORTANT GOAL, BUT IT DOES NOT PRECLUDE THE IMPORTANCE OF THE PLAYERS' LEARNING PROCESS, HAVING A GOOD TIME AND LEARNING LIFE LESSONS THROUGH SPORTS

1. THE MOST IMPORTANT THING PUT INTO THE HANDS OF THE COACH IS THE PLAYER--NOT THE TEAM.
2. THE IDEAL COACH CARES ABOUT THE CHILD FIRST AS A HUMAN BEING, SECOND AS AN ATHLETE. THE COACH SHOULD HAVE RESPECT AND CONCERN FOR EACH PLAYER ON THE TEAM.
3. EVERY LGSL COACH SHOULD PLACE THE PLAYER FIRST, THE TEAM SECOND, AND HIMSELF THIRD.
4. EACH COACH IS A MODEL FIGURE. THE PLAYER OFTEN TAKES THE ATTITUDE OF THE COACH. FOR, INSTANCE, IF THE COACH SHOWS NO RESPECT FOR THE OFFICIALS, NEITHER WILL THE PLAYERS.
5. TO THE PLAYER, THE FIRST THING IS BELONGING, THE SECOND IS CONTRIBUTING. IN THE YOUNGER AGE GROUPS, THE MOST IMPORTANT THINGS ARE TO PLAY AND TO BE A PART OF THE TEAM.
6. EACH PLAYER SHOULD ENJOY THE SPORT. HE OR SHE SHOULD NOT BE SENT HOME WITH THE BURDEN OF GUILT FOR HAVING LOST THE GAME. THE COACH SHOULD ASSUME SOME OF THAT BURDEN.
7. THE COACH MAY WANT TO WIN--THE KIDS JUST WANT TO PLAY.
