

Jeff Lewis – Utah Storm Director of Coaching

USSF “A” License Since 2012

Grew up playing soccer in Salt Lake City. Played Premier club soccer, played at Hunter High school in West Jordan, UT, and captained the Utah Olympic Development Team.

Signed on to play for Westminster College, and was player/coach for a Premier men’s club for 10 years – Salt Lake Soccer Club

Started coaching full time for Utah Storm Soccer club in 2008

Director of Coaching for Utah Storm since 2008

Has grown Utah Storm from a 12 team 3rd tier club to a 40+ team club playing in the top tier of competition

Has coached at the Club, High School and Olympic Development level

2 state Championships with teams from South Utah County

On coaching staff with the first and only Soccer National Championship to come out of Utah – 99 boys ODP team

ODP Staff Coach since 2008