Reporting

If you need to check in on data entry done by another team on your behalf, or if you want to preview pitch count history for your upcoming opponent, use the top menus to select “Team,” then the appropriate season, appropriate division, and appropriate team name. In the left column, click “Pitchers Report”:

A sample is below. Note some discrepancies between ABYB policies and the League Athletics/ABYB.org website configuration noted below:

>Majors>
M_Angels
Name	Age	Last Threw	Pitches	Next Available *	Can Pitch *
Connor B	12	Sun, Sep 20	77	Fri, Sep 25	85
Pierce C	12	Wed, Sep 23	57	Sun, Sep 27	85
Leo K	12	Wed, Sep 23	33	Fri, Sep 25	85
Remy K	12	Sun, Sep 20	27	Tue, Sep 22	85
David K	11	Sun, Sep 13	32	Tue, Sep 15	85

* The Next Available pitching date is calculated according to the new pitch count rules adopted for 2010. Click here for more information.

 The Can Pitch column indicates the number of pitches a pitcher can throw the next day they are available according to their age.

Note that the above information is only as accurate as the individual pitching data entered into the website at this time. You should always check actual records prior to deciding the pitching roster for any game. The calculations used in this report reflect LeagueAthletics.com's best understanding of the Little League rules for pitchers at this time. As above, you should always consult the actual Little League rules prior to deciding a pitcher's eligibility to throw in any upcoming game.

- 1) The "Next Available" date is based on more lenient Little League rules. ABYB rules require more rest than indicated in this "Next Available" column. Consult the "ABYB Rules and Guidelines" for actual rest days requirements.
- 2) The "Can Pitch" pitch count is not accurate in all cases. Once a pitcher has met the rest days requirement, a Majors pitcher can throw up to 85 pitches. Consult the "ABYB Rules and Guidelines" for more detail on pitch counts.
