

Dear Potential Libertyville Little League Sponsor:

Sponsoring a Libertyville Little League and or a team is a great way to support your community, while increasing advertising for your business. A historical perspective of our program and its contributions to our community include:

- 63 years of Little League baseball provided to our community;
- Over 800 players participating and 700 games played in 2014;
- Organized little league play from kindergarten through high school;
- Nationally recognized Challenger Program for special need participants;
- 100 plus umpire jobs for ages 13 and older; and
- Providing little league baseball to military service families of Naval Station Great Lakes.

Further, we encourage all Libertyville Little League families to support our sponsors and promote our sponsors in all facets of our program. The cost of being a team sponsor of Libertyville Little League is very reasonable at $350 you will receive the following:

- A team with your business name on the uniform;
- An outfield sign with your business name, logo and telephone number;
- Listings in our opening day program and monthly newsletter,
- A listing on our new website (libertyvillebaseball.org); and
- A plaque recognizing your business's valued support of our program.

DID YOU KNOW? Libertyville Little League's website has gotten over 170,000 + visits since our new website launched in August of 2013 – that's over 10,000 visits PER MONTH!!! Sponsorship links on our website resulted in 66 connections LAST MONTH ALONE directly to businesses like yours! By giving back to this great community, your tax-deductible monetary support of our program will help your business thrive!
