WESTON, CT, July 17, 2012 – Fabulous, fun and frequent prizes will be handed out throughout the evening at Casablanca Night, an adults’ night out on Saturday, August 18 that will benefit Weston’s youth and high school football players and cheerleaders. Proceeds will help fund the youth and high school football and cheerleading program’s annual combined fee of $10,000 to the Town of Weston for use of the athletic fields and facilities. Ticket sales and any donations for game chips used at the casino night may be partially tax deductible.

“Casablanca Night offers a variety of casino games for both the experienced and novice player, plus plenty of opportunities for everyone to win prizes whether your game is Blackjack, Roulette or simply socializing with friends,” said Kay Spencer, one of the event organizers. All ticket holders will automatically receive a first round of game chips at the start of the evening, with the opportunity to make donations for additional chips while the gaming tables are open.

Prizes will be awarded to the players with the most chips at the end of the evening. The grand prize is a getaway trip for two to the Hyatt Regency Resort and Spa at Gainey Ranch in Scottsdale, Arizona and the Hyatt Regency in Phoenix, with air travel courtesy of JetBlue Airways. The runner-up prize is a Vizio 37” flat-panel HDTV.

Additional prizes will be awarded to anyone who ends up with a lucky “Trojan” chip. These specially marked chips will be randomly distributed and redeemable for a variety of luxury items and indulgences, from wine and cigars to tennis, fitness and yoga sessions.

For the experience-seekers, there will be an online silent auction open in early August before the event. The silent auction will feature such special events as a private sunset dinner cruise for four; tickets and exclusive Green Room passes to Jimmy Kimmel Live!; a personalized wine tasting for a party of ten, and a dinner party for six highlighting the exquisite cuisine of Sri Lanka and India. More details about the silent auction will follow in the coming weeks.
