In House Mites

The Holiday Season this December was very exciting for the In-house Orange Firestone Mite team. They showed their speed and teamwork throughout it all.

Christmas stockings were filled to the rim during an early morning game on Sunday, December 21st. They played outstanding hockey against an equally talented Blue In-house team. Both teams showed their holiday spirit as they skated quickly after the puck throughout all three periods determined to keep the score changing. Firestone scored the first goal of the game with 2 minutes left in the first period. The Blue team tied the game up in the second period and then both teams scored in the third period to end the game in a tie. Jacob Quinn had both goals for Firestone. Assisting in the goals were Kevin White and Tristan Roberts. Joseph Brengi and Aaron Lickwar played tremendous defense while Tyler Noll stopped 11 shots on goal. They ended the game in a tie and showed us all how to play hockey from the heart.

On December 28th Firestone had hoped to finish off the New Year with a win. Although the score board read 5-4 in the other team's favor, Firestone showed us what true teamwork and dedication is all about. The team took to the ice short several players but played like pros never resting or giving up. Jacob Quinn, and Kevin White played super offense, and Jacob Wright and Aaron Lickwar amazed the fans with their quick defense and skill protecting their goal. Shawn Sellow showed strength and endurance as goalie in a game that proved to be one of the toughest for the team. He stopped several pucks and never gave up. The fans were very impressed with Blake Zimmerman who played for the opposing team because they were short a player. He showed great sportsmanship and helped the In-house Firestone team end 2003 with pride. All the fans of this team look forward to a spirited, enjoyable year ahead as we watch Firestone continue great hockey.
