

Passing Drills

Star Passing Passing Drills

You need at least 6 players to make this drill work. There needs to be at least 2 players in the spot where the ball begins.

Player #1 passes the ball two players to the right. Then follows his pass in a straight line to the right side of player #2.

Star Passing Passing Drills

Player #2 passes two players to his right, which is to #3. He must sprint to the end of the line.

Star Passing Passing Drills

#3 to #4 and continue the pattern. Be sure move to the right each time so the next pass doesn't hit the previous passer.

Objective: EVERY pass is a perfect pass. The coach MUST stop and teach/correct if the passes are not perfect.

Options: You can vary the passes between chest pass, bounce pass, or overhead pass. You can also alternate between chest pass, bounce pass, chest pass, bounce pass.
