

David Curry – CT Lacrosse Hall of Fame - Class of 2014

David Curry was a three year starter for New Canaan High School under Connecticut Lacrosse Hall of Fame coach Howard Benedict. He earned All-State and All-America honors as a senior on New Canaan's 1993 FCIAC Championship team. He began his collegiate playing career at Division III Gettysburg College where, as an attackman, he earned Third Team All-America honors in 1994 as a freshman and was a First Team All-American in 1995 as a sophomore. He then transferred to the University of Virginia, switched to midfield, and helped lead the Cavaliers to the National Championship game, eventually losing to Princeton University in overtime. His outstanding play earned him a spot on the All-Tournament team and Honorable Mention All-America recognition. As a senior in 1997 Curry was named All-Atlantic Coast Conference; All-ACC Tournament, as Virginia won its first-ever ACC Tournament championship; and First Team All-America. After college, Curry was selected to the United States National Team that captured the world title at the 1998 World Games in an iconic 15-14 overtime win over Canada. In 2001 he was part of the inaugural Major League Lacrosse draft and spent the following six seasons playing in the MLL, earning MLL All Star honors five times. In his final season with the Baltimore Bayhawks in 2005, Curry helped lead the team to its first MLL Championship. He retired from the MLL after the 2005 season. Curry joined the UVA coaching staff in 2002 as an assistant coach. His three year coaching tenure was highlighted by their 2003 National Championship season. David currently resides in Annapolis, MD with his wife Kate and their three children, Teddy, Mimi, and George. David Curry is being inducted into the Connecticut Lacrosse Hall of Fame as a truly great player.
