The MB Sports Training Programs

● Ages 9-12:

THE MB SHOOTING STARS PROGRAM

Your athletic training at MB Sports Training starts with the Shooting Stars program. Athletes are taught the importance of consistency, nutrition basics and how to implement it, proper warm-up and recovery techniques, hydration, and mental preparation. MB's Shooting Stars targets the critical periods of athletic development such as speed, flexibility, endurance and strength. This is a general physical preparation program that sets the foundation for the future development of your sport and athletic life.

● Ages 12-15yrs:

THE MB ATHLETIC EDGE II PROGRAM

The Athletic Edge 2 is MB Sports Training's second tier in developing a lifetime of sports and athletics. Athletes are taught more advanced nutrition tactics, proper warm-up and recovery techniques for specific sports, hydration, how to take care of an injury, as well as targets the critical periods of athletic development such as introducing strength training movements, increase and maintain flexibility, and short & long term endurance. This is more of a sport specific preparation program that sets the foundation for future development.

● Ages 15 and Up / Collegiate / Pro:

THE MB ATHLETIC EDGE PROGRAM

The Athletic Edge is MB Sports Training's advanced training program. In this program you are expected to be serious in your athletic endeavors. Athletes are required to understand and follow through with good nutritional habits, practice warm up & recovery techniques, and movement mechanics. In addition to traditional sports training, athletes will be executing intense strength training in order to optimize sport skill development. This is a sport specific preparation program that sets the foundation for peak sports skill development and performance.

● OTHER PROGRAMS INCLUDE:

MB In-Season Training • MB Personal Training
MB Team Training • MB Concussion Recovery Training

We realize that the physical development of boys and girls are very different. That gives us a big "grey" area in training needs. All of our athletes will be placed into appropriate training programs allowing us to target the critical periods of your athletic development.
