

COACH BEHAVIOR

You are a role model!

Your behavior on the sideline and practice field is very important.

- A) Young players recognize and respond to positive and negative body language.
- B) Conversations with officials should be cordial and respectful before or after play.
- C) Try positive reinforcement as much as possible as opposed to punishment or negative comments.
- D) Foul language and actions will not be tolerated!