Vienna Little League Welcomes the American Pastime into its Third Century

Vienna Little League
Opening Day
April 8, 2000
Souvenir Program

Americans have played baseball for more than 200 years, while they conquered a continent, warred with one another and with enemies abroad, struggled over labor and civil rights and the meaning of freedom.

At the game's heart lie mythic contradictions: a pastoral game, born in crowded cities; an exhilarating democratic sport that tolerates cheating and has excluded as many as it has included; a profoundly conservative game that sometimes manages to be years ahead of its time.

It is an American odyssey that links sons and daughters to fathers and grandfathers. And it reflects a host of age-old American tensions: between workers and owners, scandal and reform, the individual and the collective.

It is a haunted game in which every player is measured against the ghosts of all who have gone before. Most of all, it is about time and timelessness, speed and grace, failure and loss, imperishable hope, and coming home.

Ken Burns

It's that time of year again, and while it all has a familiar ring to it, this year there is a twist. This spring and the advent of a new Little League baseball season will be the first of a new millennium. During my brief tenure as Chairman of Vienna Little League, I have had the opportunity to speak directly with many of you, to speak with even more of you on the telephone, and as a sop of the technological age, to communicate with still others by e-mail. My impressions as a result of all this gabbing is that the families that comprise Vienna Little League are indeed something special!

There are approximately 1250 boys and girls participating in Vienna Little League. Anyone looking at the registration forms would be impressed by the backgrounds and qualifications of the membership of Vienna Little League: doctors, lawyers, engineers, computer specialists, plumbers, electricians, and every other skill and discipline imaginable. We have almost 100 teams at all levels in our league, meaning that there are 100 managers, 300 or more coaches, one hundred team parents, one hundred or so scorekeepers, plus assorted groundskeepers, painters, drivers, snack makers, etc.--all focused on kids ages 5 through 12 playing baseball. Quite an endeavor. And that is precisely the point--all that organization and volunteer work is provided so that kids can play a game, in this instance, Little League baseball. Any organized team activity has certain intrinsic qualities that have nothing to do with winning or losing. I don't need to go into any long dissertation but of course, sportsmanship, team spirit, and good citizenship quickly come to mind.

I look forward to seeing the army of volunteers that have materialized teach boys and girls the fundamentals of baseball promote those values that we always hear and read about: respect for the rules, for the game, for the other team, for the umpires, and for teammates. There will be exciting games, so-so games, routs, and crucial games. There will be great plays, errors, homeruns, strikeouts, heroes, and disappointment. This gamut of activity and emotions will revolve around a bunch of kids chasing a round ball with a stick. While it's a pretty good game, I think that our responsibility is to keep it just a game.

I am looking forward to the new season and to seeing you at Yeonas, Nottoway, Stenwood, Glyndon, or wherever we will play this year. I ask you for your support, your comments, and your suggestions. The Board of Directors is your representative body that directs the daily activity of Vienna Little League. The directors are your neighbors who have volunteered to carry out your mandate; that is, if you make your mandate known. Tell us your views on everything from the snack bar to the shin guards worn by the catchers.

Baseball is distinctively American, while it is now played worldwide; it remains the National Pastime. And is there any more distinctive call that evokes the images of springtime, childhood, and innocence better than, "Play Ball"?

OUR HUMBLE BEGINNINGS

Like many of great baseball traditions, Vienna Little League was founded in community spirit, in personal generosity, and in children's irrepressible desire to play the game. In 1954, the Lions Club of Vienna organized 175 ballplayers into a small league which played games at Glyndon Park and the fields at local schools. In Vienna, as in so many communities in America, love of the game became infectious, and within a few years, additional fields were needed to accommodate the rapidly increasing number of players.

In 1959, Mr. Stephen Yeonas of the Yeonas Development Company, offered and eventually deeded about two acres of land near the Southside sewer treatment plant. Vienna Little League was officially incorporated, and scores of volunteers were enlisted to raise money and provide the labor to build a 200' park, complete with backstop, fences, refreshment stand, and parking lot.

A year later the Virginia Department of Transportation notified the league that their new park was in the middle of the proposed I-66 project. Though the league faced the loss of their new home, the foundation of dedication, generosity, and volunteerism was well-established. Again, with Mr. Yeonas' assistance and a complicated set of property exchanges, Vienna Little League had a new home in the location where Yeonas Park thrives today.

As Vienna Little League does its part to usher the American Pastime into a new millennium, it carries forward a rich tradition of dedication and excellence.

Our facilities are among the finest in the country for Little League play, and our home at Yeonas Park has never looked better. Our fine staff and many dedicated volunteers have spent hundreds of hours improving the fields as well as the common areas of the park. Their labors in the off-season will be rewarded this spring, as a record number of players take the field for the 2000 Vienna Little League Season.

Our program enjoys a great history of success. Vienna Little League All-Stars have won 29 District Four Championships and 12 Virginia State Championships. Our 1972 11-12 National League All-Stars won the Southeast Regional Championship, and proudly represented their community at the Little League World Series. In 1999, with Vienna's Colonial League in its second year of existence, the Colonial 9-10 All-Stars won the District IV Championship. Their success is certainly a credit to the hard work of the players and coaches, but it is also a testament to resilience of the Vienna Little League organization and its unfailing dedication to the boys and girls of our community. We have much to look forward to in the new season.

VIENNA BASEBALL FOUNDATION

In 1966, Vienna Little League acquired a small tract of land in Oakton, Virginia. Originally, the land was to be developed into a park similar to today's Yeonas Park. Many obstacles, including problems with access to the site, prevented the property from being developed for recreational use.

In 1988, the Board of Directors, with the approval of the general membership of the League, decided that the time was right to sell the property. They determined that a foundation would be established which would manage the proceeds from the sale.

The Vienna Baseball Foundation was organized to develop amateur athletes and to foster amateur competition in the sport of baseball on a local, district, regional, national, and international basis.

IN MEMORIAM

It is with the greatest respect that the members of Vienna Little League acknowledge the passing of Mayor Charles Robinson. Throughout his many years of service, Mayor Robinson always offered an open door and an open mind to the needs of the youth of our community. He gave unconditional support to our town, and to the Little League program that grew within it. He also appreciated the importance of the rituals we celebrate here today--the advent of spring, the innocence of youth, and the joy of living in a wonderful place like Vienna. Mayor Robinson never missed an Opening Day for Vienna Little League, and we gratefully welcome Mrs. Robinson here today. As we begin our new season, we remember Mayor Robinson as a stalwart public servant, a friend, and the Captain of the home team.

"Baseball for every boy is a good, wholesome sport. It brings him out of the close confinement of the schoolroom. It takes the stoop from his shoulders and puts hard,honest muscle all over his frame. It rests his eyes, strengthens his lungs, and teaches him self-reliance and courage. Every mother ought to rejoice when her boy says he is on the school or college nine."

CHALLENGER BASEBALL

In the year 2000, Vienna Little League celebrates its tenth year of participation in the Challenger Program. This program enables mentally and physically challenged youth to enjoy the benefits of participating in an athletic environment. Challenger players range in age from 6 to 18. Both of Vienna's Challenger teams will travel to Virginia Beach in May to play in the Challenger Division State Tournament. We wish both the Angels and the Padres great success in the upcoming season.

A Prayer For The Opening Of Little League Season

Dear Almighty God,

This is a prayer for all the kids of all races and creeds in the boundless earthly springtime as baseball once more commences, as it has and will eternally in the ordinance and character of Thy inexorable seasons.

First, bless the youthful catchers—in their awkward knee pads and chest pads and masks, their unwieldy tools of ignorance, which shelter all the boys who possess the valor to be catchers—that they may be safe from injury and neglect, from errant curveballs and stray fast ones and sharp little fouls that nip the mortal flesh.

Protect the infielders from bad bounces and assauge the pain of wounded lips and cheeks when blood mingles with the infield soil; grant them deft shovel dips and 6-4-3 double plays.

Spare the eager outfielders from misjudging long drives in the lengthening twilight, permit them swift, diving catches in the dry and tranquil grass, and assure them hard, accurate tosses on cut-off throws to the inmost diamonds, straight to second, or at the corners with the runners going.

Save the young pitchers from all erratic affliction as the line drives whip past their heads and torsos and toes, and give them mastery of their fastballs and curves, that they may outwit the fledgling enemy sluggers, especially with men on the bases.

Impart faith to the rookies whose toil is to wait in the bullpens, where their labor is anonymous, as it has been through mortal time, that they, too, shall inherit the earth, for theirs is a lonely calling.

Comfort the smallest of the ballplayers, who have never gotten a hit, and those who strike out time and time again or languish on the benches day after livelong day, for their moment, too, is destined to be.

Defend the ballplayers, when they drop flies or boot grounders, from the wrath of their fathers, for many are the fathers who fear not the timeless injunction "Judge not, that ye not be judged." Forever shield the erring boys from retributive dads who know not even the Infield Fly Rule.

Reward the faithful mothers as they transport their children to practice, launder their sullied uniforms, soothe their cuts and bruises, pacify their anxious qualms, and sustain them in triumph as in adversity with cheers and acclamations from the bleachers, for theirs is rightfully the Kingdom of Heaven.

Glorify, too, the grandparents in their faithfulness and the aunts and uncles who bear witness in the stands, and forsake not the little brothers and sisters who admire their agile siblings with an abiding eagerness.

Absolve the umpires from the consequences of their flaws, bequeath them transcendent vision, and sanctify them above all for the close calls at the plate, for they, more than any of Thy creatures, are afflicted with tribulations.

Remind us that baseball will never die, for its everlasting rhythms lie rooted in the soil and its passions in the enduring chatter that ripples through the bleachers, in the wafting odor of peanuts and popcorn and breaded corn dogs.

Above all, grant us boyhood and girlhood, where in time's soft reverie we are forever children, and where baseball shall dwell with us always, and where sharp grounders are eternally fielded in a new leather glove and drives to deep center are ceaselessly ensnared in shoestring catches and the wicked curveballs are met with two-run singles to left-center, to win the game in the bottom half of the ninth.

In Thy infinite wisdom and grace, our Great Umpire in the Heavens, grant all this in perpetuity to all baseball children of the earth. Amen.

Willie Morris
