

Attention Baseball Coaches and Athletes

Champions Baseball Academy will soon be conducting our annual Spring Baseball Camp and Clinic held in Anderson, Ohio

Date: April 10th, 2011

Location: Riverside Park

Opportunities: Players Clinic Ages 5-6 (12:00 - 2:00 pm)

Instructors:

Mike Bricker is a former professional Major League Scout with the Chicago Cubs and White Sox and former college player and coach for the University of South Carolina last years NCAA Champions. Mike is the current President of Baseball Operations at Champions Baseball Academy in Milford and is dedicated to the improvement of baseball players of all ages. He will be joined by several members of the Champions Staff which, includes the area's finest and most knowledgeable instructors such as Bob Reichow, former Cleveland Indians player, and current Pitching Director at Champions, Jay Johnson, former Boston Red Sox player and Xavier University all time hit leader. , Mark Knose, former player for Montreal Expos and Atlanta Braves, Todd Montgomery, former college coach and current coach at CHCA, Jeff Hautmann former Milwaukee Brewer , Rocky Curnayn former pro player and current catching director at Champions, and Jeff Keith former Florida Gator and current Camp Director and infield specialist at Champions. Instructors will appear based on availability and registrations.

Camp Topics and Features

Camp will consist of throwing and fielding Techniques for 5 and 6 year old players also Covered will be running the bases.

Cost: $30.00 per player

Information: Contact Mike Bricker at (513)735-4680 or e-mail MBRICKER@FUSE.NET
OR Champions at 831-8873 or Joe Altimari 237-0252. Championsbaseball@gmail.com

Registration Is Limited and Accepted on a First Come-First Serve Basis