The actions of players, managers, coaches, umpires and league officials must be consistent with Rocky Hill Little League Code of Conduct. Any player, manager, coach, umpire or league official who is involved in a verbal or physical altercation or an incident of unsportsmanlike conduct, at the game site or any other Little League activity is subject to disciplinary action. All participants, players, parents, umpires and coaches shall recognize that each board member has an obligation to address violations of the Code of Conduct, to the extent such board member observes and perceives same, and the disciplinary committee will investigate any such report of an incident in the same manner in which it investigates any other report.

Reports of violations of the Code of Conduct are to be submitted in writing to the Discipline Committee.

Strong communication between coaches, players and parent/guardian is vital to the success of a team. We encourage all coaches and parent/guardians to develop and maintain open lines of communication.

At times, coaches and parents/guardians may have an issue about coaching styles, playing time, discipline, etc. It is imperative that discussions between coaches and parents/guardians be conducted civilly and at a location that is away from the rest of the team. If the tone of any discussion escalates into something other than civil or is conducted publicly, the discussion between the coach and parents/guardians should end immediately and be taken up again at a less emotionally charged time, or can be taken to the President of the Rocky Hill Little League Board of Directors.

At any time, a coach and parents/guardians can refer any questions or problems to the President of the Board rather than engaging in a one on one discussion. The Board will resolve all issues and has ultimate authority in all cases. The Discipline Committee may also find it necessary to intercede without invitation in any situation that it feels is not being addressed or handled properly.
