Name of BHC member(s) you know:

1) Hockey members have a seasonal membership (Nov-March) that allows use of the skating facility for their specified practices and games, plus general skate sessions and pond hockey. Only the hockey member has these privileges and it does not extend to a spouse, parent, child or sibling.

2) The family of a hockey member does have use/charge privileges at the Carriage House Restaurant and Beacon Hill Skate Shop. For restaurant use, the hockey member should be present or on the ice at the time.

3) New youth hockey members pay a one time new player fee (except Mite Developmental). All hockey memberships terminate at the end of the skating season and must be renewed for each successive season.
