

Code of Conduct

This League is designed to provide a robust, structured, supervised, instructional and competitive baseball program for any and all youth age 13 to 19 within the designated boundaries of Loudoun County, which fosters an environment that emphasizes sportsmanship, fair play, physical and mental well-being, teamwork, baseball skills development, community involvement, and volunteerism, and the development of good citizens and positive role models for the community.

The following codes of conduct will be strictly enforced throughout every GLBR season.

1.1 PLAYERS CODE OF CONDUCT

In order to ensure that the principles of sportsmanship, fair play, skill development, and mutual respect among players, managers, coaches, umpires and spectators are the primary considerations governing competition in the Greater Loudoun Babe Ruth League, the following Code of Conduct has been established and adopted.

Each player will ensure that his playing conduct is that of a young gentleman, competing fairly to the limit of his ability. To satisfactorily meet these responsibilities, the player is expected to:

- Know the rules and abide by them.
- Respect the umpires and refrain from addressing them or commenting on their decisions during the play of the game. The team's manager may address the umpires during the game but only within the provisions of the rules and in a courteous, respectful manner.

- Respect the manager, coaches and players of the opposing team and demonstrate appropriate gestures of sportsmanship at the conclusion of every game - be humble and generous in victory and proud and courteous in defeat.
- Follow all practice or game facility rules and regulations, respecting at all times the property of others.
- Realize, accept, and practice the principle that a team's reputation is built not only on its playing ability but also on the sportsmanship, courtesy and manners of each individual player.
