GROUND FORCES

LW-Blue travelled to Bourbonnais to take on the Bears and build on their success from a Week 2 win. Using a methodical, ball-controlling offense and unrelenting defense, Blue earned an impressive 6-0 victory, but it didn't seem that close.

In a rematch of last year's LW Super Bowl, the Falcons completely dominated the Bears. The Offense featured a punishing ground attack (Jake Jansto—97 yards rushing, John Christensen—41), while putting together two impressive book-end drives. Their opening drive (13-play, 50 yards) finished with Creighton Siebert pounding in from 1 yard for the game's only score. The final drive (10-play, 46 yards) burned clock, while keeping the ball from the Bears, until there was no time left. But, not like it would have mattered, as the Falcons D was impenetrable. Led by Christensen (5 tackles and a sack), along with great pressure from Jansto, Ryan Scianna, Alex Helmin and Brock Marshall, the Bears were held to negative 1 yard and forced into early hibernation. Next week, LW-Blue (2-1) hosts Joliet (2-1) in a critical game to stay atop the standings.

LW-Blue won 18-0 in the 5th quarter behind two TD runs by Matthew Judd and one by Matt Dunlap, aided from great blocking by Ford Liby, Max Kocka, Alec Ogarek, Conrad Ostrowski, Bryce Richards, and Ben Domalewski. DJ Feehery added a 25-yard run. Smothering Defense was led by Tre Allen and Cole Cunningham, with help from Julian Bosco, Jacob Alberts and Dillan Lang.

V White

The Varsity White looked to build on the success of last week's win as it faced the Eagles in Ottawa. White opened with the ball and moved downfield quickly, but faltered and were forced to punt.

The Eagles capitalized early, using their size to open holes on the Falcon line. The Falcon defense was led by Graf, Signorelli, Lieser and Rogers, but their efforts could not prevent an early 19-0 Eagle lead. A leaping Carrara, amongst five Eagle players, just missed a highlight reel grab to end the Falcon half-trailing 19-0.

The Falcons fought back in the second half, capping a 78 scamper by McArthur with a TD run by Mundt. The Falcons fell to 1-2 with the 25-6 loss.
