

Bristol Soccer Club

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What is the policy on rainy days?

A: The Club will make the decision if a game is cancelled or not. Lightning in the area or unsafe field conditions would be reasons for cancellation. If your coach does not call you, please call the club or your coach for more information.

Q: Which league should my child play in?

A: Please check the "leagues" section of the website.

Q: Does the Bristol Soccer Club have co-ed teams?

A: Yes, the Micro and Midget leagues are co-ed

Q: Do I have to participate in the fundraiser?

A: Yes. The fundraisers help to keep the registration fees low. There is a candy sale in the Spring and cheesecakes in the Fall.

Q: Will I be able to purchase pictures of my son or daughter?

A: Yes. Pictures will be taken in the Fall season only.

Q: If I live outside of Bristol, can my son or daughter play for the travel team?

A: Yes, each travel team is allowed to have 2 players that live outside of Bristol.

Q: How do I register my child to play soccer?

A: Online registration is the only method of registering to play. Please check the website throughout the year to see when online registration is open.

Q: Can I opt to "buy out" instead of selling candy?

A: Yes, the cost to "buy out" both boxes of candy is $45.
