

Chad Moeller Baseball has run baseball clinics, camps and individual instruction at Scottsdale Batting Cages for the last three years and for the last five years in the Scottsdale/Phoenix area since Chad Moeller retired from professional baseball in 2011. The camps and clinic instructors are all former or current players with a passion for teaching. We have taught young boys and girls to most recently Tim Tebow. The goal is for players to learn the game correctly so they can enjoy it more. Please register at ChadMoellerBaseball.com
