WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

In 1926, Miss Rosabelle Sinclair established the first women's lacrosse team in the United States at the Bryn Mawr School in Baltimore. In 1933, the United States Women's Lacrosse Association (USWLA) held its first national tournament in Connecticut. The first NCAA women's lacrosse championship was played between the University of Massachusetts and Trenton State University in 1982. That same year, the first IFWLA World Cup was played in England, with the United States defeating Australia, 10-7, in the gold medal game.

GETTO KNOW YOUR GIRLS 5/6 COACH

Vivianne Dussek

What is your nickname?

Viv

How long have you been with the Crescents?

Since Spring 2013

What is your favorite Crescents lacrosse memory?

Our first Brewster tournament where we didn't win that many games, but seeing the girls have so much fun with each other off the field. I still have the video of them all rolling down the big hill together.

What is a hobby you have other than playing lacrosse? I have a volleyball team I play on once a week.

What is your favorite color? Blue/ purple

What is your favorite part about being a Crescent? Sense of family. Seeing my girls come out of their shells and really bond with one another. Also, the really cool jacket.

What's one thing you can't live without? Fries.

What is your favorite tv show/movie/book? Goodfellas is one of my favorite movies.
