Recognize any of these characters on your team?

The Ringer:

Move in, everyone, it's another gurl at the plate. Except, there's something different about this one. He's got a swagger about him. And that practice swing looked pretty smooth. Yep, he just hit a bomb over the left fielder's head. Turns out he's got a big bat.

Completely Clueless...But Cute:

He's never played softball in his life. He stands directly on top of home plate while hitting. His hands are approximately a foot apart on the bat. He doesn't so much swing as spin his entire body. He made contact with the ball once...and ran straight to third. But his ass looks great in a pair of yoga pants. And all the guys are super supportive of him, which is nice to see.

The Designated Drinker:

Uses softball as an excuse to get drunk. And not just a little buzzed – we're talking hammered. The Designated Drinker is a huge fielding liability, mostly because he's drunk, but also because he has to put his Dixie cup down before he makes a play on the ball. (That or he just stretches his foot out to stop it). The one time he managed to field a grounder cleanly he proceeded to gun it 25 feet over the first baseman's head into the middle of a rugby scrum. Best aim in the league.

Looks the Part:

This guy is ready to play. He's got matching everything. His glove is worth more than your car. And he wears eye black underneath his Gucci sunglasses.

Break-Up Brownie

- 2 100g milk chocolate Lindt bars
- 1 tbsp butter
- $\frac{1}{2}$ - $\frac{3}{4}$ cup whipping cream
- 1 bag of One-Bite-Brownies (bakery section)
- 1 small tub of Mario's Gelati Vanilla Bean Gelato Artigianale
- Dash of salt

Warm $\frac{1}{2}$ - $\frac{3}{4}$ cup of whipping cream in a sauce pan, over low heat. Stir continuously. Do not boil and do not cry over spilled milk. Add butter and salt. Once the mixture is warm and giving-off a gentle steam, turn-off heat. Break-up the chocolate bars into small pieces and add to the mixture. Continue stirring until chocolate is completely melted and the mixture is thick and rich, just like your next man.

Place three brownies in a bowl with two generous scoops of gelato. Spoon chocolate mixture over top and serve with Dante's Cove.

Enjoy.

Chef Kenny

Patsy's 3rd Base

Dear Patsy,

I'm new to WESA this year, and I am still learning about batting strategy. Sometimes, my teammates yell, "Red Light! Red Light!". What does that mean?

Signed,

Red Light?

Dear Red Light,

Girl, don't you got your driver's license?! A red light means "Stop" bitch!

When the count is three balls and zero strikes, it's common practice not to swing at the next pitch. But honey, I say, any pitcher that shows you three balls has something special he ain't showin' you yet! So swing if you like what he's throwin', and if your coach benches you, at least you're leaving the field smiling.

Love,

Patsy

Batting Average Definition:

A batting average is computed by dividing the total number of hits by the number of at bats minus walks and sacrifices.

$$BA = (1B+2B+3B+HR) / (AB-BB-SF)$$

Slugging Average Definition:

A slugging average is computed by dividing the total number of bases on hits by the number of at bats minus walks and sacrifices.

$$SA = ((1B*1) + (2B*2) + (3B*3) + (HR*4)) / (AB-BB-SF)$$

On Base Definition:

On base percentage is used to gauge how often a player safely reaches base. It is computed by adding the total number of hits and walks, then dividing by the total number of at bats. $OB = (1B+2B+3B+HR+BB) / AB$
