

Nashoba Youth Basketball League

Player's Code of Conduct

Mission and Purpose:

The Nashoba Youth Basketball League (NYBL) is dedicated to raising the standard of service to youth in sports through the creation and enforcement of the Code of Conduct. The Code of Conduct defines the expectations for coaches, parents, spectators, officials, and players in the league. NYBL firmly believes that for the sports experience is to be a positive, safe, and an enjoyable learning experience for youth of the league.

- I will commit to do my best to learn the game of basketball and to play well with others on the team.
- I understand this is a team sport and I will make every effort to attend all practices and all games, on time and prepared to play.
- I will follow the rules, participate in fair play and exhibit good sportsmanship on and off the court.
- I will try my best, try to perform well at all times, to win gracefully and accept defeat in the proper perspective.
- I will treat all the players with respect and good sportsmanship whether on or off the court.
- I understand the referee's decisions are not mine to question. I will not make comments about nor talk to the referees about any calls made on the court.
- I will follow my coach's instructions and will treat him/her and any other coach with respect.
- I will exhibit respect for the referees, coaches, and other players. I will speak with the referees, coaches and other players in a civil, calm manner. I will not openly berate, taunt or otherwise comment negatively on the referees, coaches, or other players.
