

STAHA Executive and Association Board Member

Code of Conduct

This document was created to define the minimum acceptable standard of honorable behavior for all Board Members. Board Members serve as role models within our Association and their behavior should reflect this.

Professional Conduct

1. A Board Member shall act in a moral and ethical manner with other members of the board, the association members, and their families. _____
2. A Board Member shall treat other members of the Board, the Association members and their families, and all guests of the Organization with respect. A Board Member will not be verbally or physically abusive to other members of the Board, members of the Association—and their families, nor guests of the Organization, and agree to resolve conflict in a constructive face-to-face manner. _____
3. A Board Member shall encourage a team approach in all their interactions and strive to avoid participation in the advancement of rumors by correcting erroneous statements with facts. _____
4. A Board Member shall encourage the engagement and, when appropriate, advancement of all other Association members and Board teammates. _____
5. A Board Member will follow STAHA's, CAHA's, NORCAL's, and USA Hockey's guidelines for professional image, administrative excellence, and appropriate behavior. Each Board Member will demonstrate ideal spectator behavior at all events governed by STAHA, CAHA, NORCAL, or USA Hockey. _____
6. Board Members will refrain from emailing controversial or highly emotional subject matter to the Board, the Association Members, or their families. The expectation is that when these matters arise they are discussed in person at the Executive Board level and then brought to the Association Board as needed. _____
