

Treasurer

Chad Anson

Over the past two years on the STAHA Executive Board I have been able to learn the intricacies and financial needs of STAHA. As a small business owner I also understand the importance of being fiscally responsible. I will bring this experience to making sure STAHA's finances are managed to balance keeping an affordable program with making sure the program has a reserve for potential unknown expenses.