1. Report all claims

Immediately report all claims to your agent or Markel Claims.

For after-hours emergencies such as death, serious bodily injury, or extreme property damage, immediately call Markel Claims at 800-362-7535 or Horse Mortality at 800-446-7925.

Report all claims involving theft, vandalism, or other crimes to the police when they occur. Obtain the police report number when possible.

2. Get the facts

Write down how and exactly where the accident happened, along with the time it occurred.

Get the names, addresses, and phone numbers of everyone involved (including passengers for auto-related claims).

Get all available insurance information from all drivers for auto-related claims. This includes insurance company, policy number, agent's name and phone, and driver's license number.

If possible, take pictures at the scene.

For serious property claims, take the necessary steps to preserve the damaged property and mitigate any further damages. Make temporary repairs when necessary and keep all receipts.

3. Copy and submit all correspondence

Copy all accident-related correspondence, and mail the originals to Markel. This includes reports, statements, bills, and letters.

Send all correspondence as soon as you receive it—don't let it accumulate. Reference your policy number and claim number on each document.

If you receive any type of legal papers, immediately call Markel Claims at 800-362-7535. If possible, fax the documents to us at 804-565-1970.

Our commitment to you

Our commitment to you begins the moment you choose Markel as your insurance company. You expect quality coverage—that's why you buy insurance. But good service, someone who really wants to help you? That almost seems too much to hope for.

From the minute you pick up the phone and talk with our receptionist (a real person, not an automated system!), you'll notice what separates us from the pack—our people.

Our underwriters, claims associates, loss control representatives, and administrative associates are real people, too. We treat you the way you want to be treated: respectfully, courteously, and professionally. When you have a question, we get the answer. When you leave a message, we call you back. You get service, not the run-around.

Our claims staff is experienced, efficient, and effective—everything you expect. What you may not expect is how our loss control and risk management specialists suggest improvements that can help you avoid losses and accidents altogether.

How else is Markel committed to you? Our prudent, conservative approach to fiscal management makes us financially stable, so you have greater assurance of our ability to pay claims when you need it.

Our commitment to you is simple. We treat you right. We deliver what we promise. We are a partner you can rely on for many years to come.
