PARENT/SCHOOL AUTHORIZATION

For parents or legal guardians and school officials to indicate approval for a minor employee to work according to the terms listed by the employer and within the limits of the child labor regulations.

Email: teensafety@Lni.wa.gov or Web page: www.TeenWorkers.Lni.wa.gov

This is not a Minor Work Permit

Employers must have a minor work permit endorsement on their Business License for each work location with employees under age 18 and renew it each year.

See <http://bls.dor.wa.gov/minorworkpermit.aspx>

Do not mail this form to L&I. This form is to be kept on file by the employer at the minor's workplace and be available for department audit. A copy should also be maintained by the minor's school representative. Additionally, the employer must renew this parent/school authorization by September 30, of each year or when work schedule changes.

NOTE: Parents and school representatives should not sign this form unless the boxes for the daily and weekly work schedule are completely filled out to reflect the anticipated maximum hours of work. The school or parent may limit the hours of work for a student according to how the student will be affected by working too many hours, e.g., homework, attendance, etc. and may reduce and approve fewer hours than the rules allow or are requested by the employer.

*Optional School Week Special Variance Authorization* (Non-Agricultural Employment Only) For 16- and 17-year-old Minors

A Special Variance allows a 16- or 17-year-old minor to work up to 28 hours per week with 6-hour shifts during the school week with approval of the authorized school official and the parent. All parties must agree to these additional hours, [pursuant to WAC 296-125-070(3)].

School officials should not sign for any additional hours allowed by the Special Variance if a review of the student's progress indicates the additional work hours will be detrimental to the minor's educational activities.

Please check if planning to use the Special Variance for additional school-week work hours.
