Suburban Travel Commitment Form (2018)

CRHLL is looking for players who will be committed to playing in the Suburban Travel Baseball League. Any player that agrees to this commitment will not be able to play on another travel baseball team during our season. A player that is on another travel team's roster will be removed from our roster and a replacement player will be selected. Travel players will be required to actively play on a CRHLL In-house team or be removed from the travel roster. No refunds will be issued if player is in violation to the terms of this agreement.
