National League Commitment Form (2019)

CRHLL is looking for 11 and 12-year-old players who will be committed to playing in our National League, within our Major's division.

Any player whose priority is other spring sports teams/activities, WILL still be able to play in the Majors, but in the American or Continental Leagues only. Also, National League players may NOT participate in another in-house baseball league whose primary weekly play days are Monday-Thursday and/or Saturday.

By signing this form, the National League candidate is willing to commit to his/her National League baseball team as his/her primary spring sports team and if placed on a National League team is expected to attend every practice and game.

Is the above player participating on another spring sports team, other than Holland Baseball?

Yes: _____ No: _____ If yes, what sport: _____

If CRHLL finds that a player has missed a team event (practice/game) to participate for a different team, that player, at the League's discretion is subject to disciplinary action, including, but not limited to: warning, suspension, transfer to an American or Continental League team and even removal from league entirely for the remainder of the season. No refunds.

No player may participate in the National League without consenting to this Team Commitment.
