

HEIGHTS BASEBALL SCHOOL

Columbia Park, Berkeley Heights, NJ

Entering our 19th year, the Heights Baseball School has provided the best training possible for aspiring young baseball players. The program is geared towards boys entering grades 1 through 9 and includes:

- Batting mechanics
- Pitching mechanics
- Individual position play
- Base running
- Instructional and competitive games

Chris Roof – Director

Before coming to Governor Livingston High School in 2004 to coach the Varsity baseball team, Chris was head coach at Millburn High School for 3 seasons. A standout baseball player and National Champion at Montclair State University, Chris has been named Coach of the Year 10 times including New Jersey State Coach of the Year in 2011. Chris has sent 44 players to play college baseball including 13 at the D1 level.

“Chris Roof is one of very few coaches who works with middle school baseball players with thorough, comprehensive baseball workouts. What I love about Coach Roof is his passion and obvious love for the greatest sport; his enthusiasm is infectious and appreciated. The young baseball players of Berkeley Heights and Mountainside are lucky to have a coach that is so involved.” -Al Leiter (former MLB Pitcher and current MLB analyst)
