The Spring Player/Parent Meeting will be held at the Mason High School on Monday, March 12 at 6pm.
- E. Pay to Play fee – DeAnna Malloy
The Pay to Play fee will be due during spring break. Please make sure to pay this fee through Home Access Center (HAC).
- F. Concession Update – DeAnna Malloy/Rosemary Wells
- Concession stand is clean, organized and ready for the season.
 - A work order has been put in to take care of the maintenance needed.
 - 17 families have not signed up through Sign Up Genius as of tonight for concession shifts. All families will be required to work in the concession stands. Please sign up if you have not done so already. Any family not signed up by 3/11 will be assigned open shifts. Thank you.
 - There was an issue with LaRosa charging Mason Boys Lacrosse instead of the Mason Girls Basketball Boosters. This has been reported and is in process of being fixed.
- G. Team Dinner Update – Rosemary Wells
- Rosemary Wells will be holding a committee meeting on Monday, March 12 to finalize plans for the Team Dinners. There are 6 members of this committee, including new members Kim & Becky. Thank you for volunteering.
 - Kroger and Aldi both declined requests for donating this year. Meijer, Sam's Club, Fresh Market and Fresh Thyme are still outstanding. Organization of the storage area will take place later this week or next week and items that still need to be purchased will be purchased.

The first team dinner will be on Monday, March 19. 6 of the 8 dinners are committed and waiting to hear from the other 2 locations. There are other standby options. Businesses providing dinners, side dishes and beverages to date include:

Bravo	Fresh Market	Milano's
City BBQ	Fricke's	Gold Star Chili
Culver's	Longhorn Steakhouse	Old Bag of Nails
Drug Mart	Raising Cane's	Twin Dragon Buffet & Grill

Please consider supporting these local establishments as they are supporting the team.
