

CJSA ZERO TOLERANCE REFEREE ABUSE POLICY

“ATTACHMENT Zero”

SUPPORT FOR REFEREES - ZERO TOLERANCE POLICY

Every person responsible for a team and each and every spectator and player will respect the authority of the referee. This respect is essential to the proper play of the game, the development of our players and the retention of quality, experienced referees. Failure to respect the authority of the referees, especially by the person(s) responsible for the team, undermines the authority of the referee, sets a bad example for everyone else, especially the players, and can rapidly lead into a hostile, negative game environment where playing the game of soccer is no longer the focus of the activity. This is entirely inconsistent with the sportsmanship goals that the Northeast District is trying to promote. Therefore, the basic rule is that spectators and persons responsible for the team will not address the referee at all before, during, and after a match. The prohibitions, exceptions, the penalties for violation, and policy execution are described as follows:

A. PERSONS RESPONSIBLE FOR A TEAM

With the exception of responding to a communication initiated by a referee, making a substitution, or pointing out an emergency safety issue during the play of a match, the persons responsible for a team should not say anything to a referee. Nor should they do anything that conveys in any way any criticism of the referee. Coaches may ask questions before the start of play or direct questions properly through their captains, but may not approach the referee at halftime or at the end of the match. Coaches who have concerns about a referee’s officiating may express those concerns verbally or in writing to the District Referee Administrator (DRA). They may not express those concerns to the Referee.

The Northeast District recommends that the referee deal with infractions of this rule in the following manner:

1. Instances of infrequent and reasonably low key dissent can be ignored.
2. The first instance of persistent dissent is to be acknowledged with a verbal warning. The second instance will result in the coach’s dismissal from the field. Coaches are not to be issued a card of any kind, but a referee must clearly indicate
3. Player dissent is to be dealt with according to FIFA law.

B. SPECTATORS

With the exception of responding to a communication initiated by a referee, or pointing out an emergency safety issue, spectators will not say anything to a referee. Nor will they do anything that in any way conveys criticism of the referee.

The Northeast District recommends that the referee deal with infractions in the following manner:

1. Infrequent or reasonably low key dissent can be ignored.
2. At the instance of the first infraction of persistent dissent, the referee will stop the match and ask the person responsible for the team to quiet the offending spectator.
3. At the instance of the second infraction, the referee will stop the match and inform the person(s) responsible for the team that the spectator must immediately leave the match and surrounding area.

Failure to comply will result in the match being abandoned. The referee will file the necessary reports and send them to the DRA, who in turn will forward them to the District VP.

4. Due to the age and experience of some officials, they may need the assistance of responsible people to help if the spectator is not affiliated with either team.

C. UNBECOMING CONDUCT

If a member or members of a team, any persons responsible for a team, or a team’s spectators engage in unbecoming conduct before, during, or after a match, they will be subject to discipline by the N.E. District Discipline Committee. This discipline can include suspension of the entire team from their next scheduled match.

D. POLICY EXECUTION

Clubs are directed to post signs at all fields at places where coaches and spectators gather and can read publicizing the nature of the zero tolerance policy.