

THREE RIVERS LITTLE LEAGUE PRIVACY POLICY

This Privacy Policy has been written to answer questions you might have about this issue. As a youth organization we are very concerned about privacy. Therefore, we have taken measures to tailor our content and offerings to help protect an individual's privacy.

This Privacy Policy applies to information collected on Three Rivers Little League authored websites such as: www.3RiversLL.com and ThreeRiversLL.com and our official page on Facebook as well as information received from other sources such as registration, payment and player data.

Our Commitment to Security

Three Rivers Little League, Incorporated has implemented physical, electronic and managerial processes to safeguard the privacy of the information it obtains.

Advice to Children and Parents

We strongly advise children to get their parent(s) or guardian(s) to review any information they intend to transmit and get their permission before submitting any kind of personal data to anyone over the Internet. We urge parents to repeatedly discuss with their children the danger of giving personal information to anyone (online or in person) whom they don't personally know. We also encourage parents and guardians to spend time online with their children monitoring and reviewing their children's online activity. As a policy, no person under the age of 18 is permitted to register directly for Three Rivers Little League.

What personal information do we collect for our electronic database?

Little League Baseball, Incorporated requires chartered Little Leagues to submit player registration data and coach/manager data to be in compliance with Regulation IV(g) as well as league officer information at the time of chartering annually. Complete data for all players, managers/coaches and league officers is required. Player registration data must include the date of birth of the player and parent or guardian contact information. Three Rivers Little League must verify the accuracy of such information annually. A player, manager or coach must be listed be on the data submitted to Little League International in order to be covered by Little League National Accident Insurance, provided it is purchased by the league.

All data is submitted electronically through the secure "Little League Data Center" on www.LittleLeague.org/datacenter. This website details the acceptable formats including a downloadable spreadsheet as well as from reports available from the Active Network's league management software (www.active.com).

How do we use personal information collected and received?

Any information gathered by Three Rivers Little League on this website, through the League Player Registration and Coach/Manager registration process and/or by any other means, will be used for the purpose of furthering the mission and of meeting compliance requirements of Little League Baseball, Incorporated. Neither Three Rivers Little League nor Little League Baseball, Incorporated sells any information collected from you to outside companies. We may use the information to fulfill your requests for information or to respond to your inquiries about our program. We sometimes use this information to communicate with you, such as to update you to schedule changes, regulations or risk management issues, ask your opinion through surveys and research, or provide you with the latest news story being covered by Three Rivers Little League.

The information you provide in connection with our website and email communications, online forums, social media sites and communities is used to create an interactive experience. We may use this information to facilitate conversation and from time to time, offer you information, programs and services.

The data provided to Three Rivers Little League is utilized by Little League International in the ways such as the following:

- To catalog and record each individual player into a yearly listing of participants in the Little League program. These records are maintained in the Little League archives and for historical purposes through the Little League Museum. This information may also be used for operational issues that may arise with respect to eligibility of the participants in a local league program.
- To maintain a record of the coaches and managers involved in the Little League program and their associated team and/or league. This information is used to provide seasonal training materials, to send the Little League Magazine for their team's players during the season as well as operational issues that may arise requiring contact with Little League International.
- Email addresses provided to Little League International through the league player record sharing process by each player's parent(s) or guardian(s), and coach and/or manager are incorporated into Little League International's electronic database for the current season. Individuals receive an "Opt-In" welcome announcement and are given the choice to opt-in to receive communications from Little League. Every communication sent will provide you an option to "Opt-Out".
- Household mailing addresses reported by leagues are occasionally used to provide information to those residents about the Little League program. Should information be sent, it will be sent under the cover of "Current Resident" or "To the Parent or Guardian of Little League Participant."

Player and coach/manager information must be sent to Little League International in accordance with Regulation IV(g) of the Little League rulebook.

The privacy policy below describes our process for collecting and using email addresses of our constituents.
