

Commitment

I fully understand that by signing this form and paying a deposit to the Boston Jr Terriers that my son/daughter is committed to this program upon signing the contract through the conclusion of the hockey season as determined for the 2019 -2020 season by league. Coaches are subject to change. It is also my responsibility to know the rules governing the league which I will obtain from this program.

Tuition

- A 5% discount off tuition total will be given to anyone who pays up front & in full no later than April 1, 2019.
- Deposit of $1,000 due upon signing contract ($500 for Half Season & Developmental teams)
- The balance of the tuition/contract is to be divided into five installments and paid on the 1st of each month starting in May and making final payment September 1, 2019.
- It is the responsibility of the person making payments & signing contract to be aware of the team tuition.
- DEPOSITS ARE NON-REFUNDABLE.
- If tuition is not received in full by September 1, 2019, the player will not be allowed to skate at practices, games or skills until the tuition is paid in full.

Player Code of Conduct

- Players must always represent the Terriers with class and dignity.
- Players will accept and will not dispute or argue any decision by an official or coach. Players will respect the coaches, teammates, parents, opponents, spectators, facility employees and officials and understand that at no time is it appropriate to challenge decisions.
- Players must always display good sportsmanship and play in the spirit of the game. Players' actions must never deliberately jeopardize the safety and well-being of opponents, teammates, officials, spectators, coaches or any other individual.
- Players must strive to be a team player.
- Players will control their tempers on and off the ice. Obscene/abusive language and inappropriate behavior will not be tolerated in or around the rink.
- Work hard, play for fun and always be a good sport.

Parent Code of Conduct

The Parent Code of Conduct applies to all practices, games, tournaments, clinics and any other related activity that your son or daughter's team is participating in with the league. It is the parent or guardian's responsibility to behave appropriately and respectfully toward all players, coaches, parents, spectators, officials or employees and property of any facility where events are being held. Failure to comply with this code of conduct may result in expulsion from the league without refund. As a parent/guardian I pledge to:

- To refrain from using obscene or vulgar language in a boisterous manner to anyone at any time.
- To refrain from taunting players, parents, spectators, facility employees, coaches or officials by means of baiting, ridiculing, criticizing, threatening physical violence or enacting physical violence.
- To refrain from throwing any object in the spectators' viewing area, players' bench, penalty box, locker room, the on-ice surface or anywhere on the premises of a facility where an event is held that in any manner creates a safety hazard.
- To fully support and positively reinforce the efforts and feedback of the team coaches. This means refraining from interfering with coaching activities—let the coaches do their jobs.

- To fully support and comply with USA Hockey's Zero Tolerance Policy.

Liability

In consideration of his/her being permitted to participate in this ice hockey program, the undersigned hereby releases the league, EHF/USPHL, Puck Drop/Lamplighters, LLC, Canton SportsPlex and the Mark Bavis Ice Arena in Rockland, MA and any of their officers, agents, and employees from any liability for any injury suffered during the ice hockey activity or in travel to and from the activity. I further attest that the child mentioned above is physically and medically qualified to participate in said program and will wear all required protective equipment as stated in USA Hockey Official Rule Book under rules 301, 302, 303 & 304.
