

Alpine Little League Strike Zone

- When the batter is in a natural stance
 - AA: shin to shoulder
 - 4 inches below knee to shoulder
 - AAA: bottom knee to armpit
 - MAJORS : top of knee to armpit
- ALL LEVELS: over the plate (no widening).
 - In no case should the zone be extended inward or outward.
- REMEMBER! If any part of a pitched ball touches any part of that strike zone, it is a strike and you are expected to call it as such.
 - Like breaking a pane of glass

Home Plate....The black edge is not part of home plate

Plate Dimensions Section 2 – BASES, PLATES

Strike Zone Width...If any part of ball touches the plate it is a strike

Majors...Top of Knees to Armpits

AAA...Bottom of knees to armpit

armpits

Bottom of knees

AA...Shins to Shoulders

Shoulders

Shins

Remember!!.... If any part of ball touches the strike zone it is a strike

Alpine Little League...Strike Zones

AA

Shoulders

Shins

AAA

Arm pit

Bottom of knee

Majors

Arm pit

Top of knee

Alpine / West Menlo
Little League

Alpine West Menlo Little League 2017
Umpire Training