

NYSAHA GIRLS PLAYER DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM – ZONE, DISTRICT & NATIONAL CAMP ELIGIBILITY PROCESS & PROCEDURES

DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Significant changes have been instituted by USAH in regards to Female Player Development and the framework of the USAH National Development Camp program. These changes will affect the way we provide development opportunities in New York. Outlined below is the development plan that will be instituted in New York. In order to be selected for a USAH National Player Development camp, age eligible players must progress through a sectional, and then district wide tryout as described below.

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT CAMP STRUCTURE

APRIL 2015: SECTIONAL DEVELOPMENT CAMPS

($55 FEE) – 1 CAMP PER ZONE

- Open to all females in birth years 1998 - 2001. Players in birth years 1998-2000 would participate with the goal to be selected to the DISTRICT 15-17 DEVELOPMENT TRYOUT CAMP to be held in Cicero in May. Players in the 2001 birth year would participate with the goal to be selected to either the EASTERN REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT CAMP to be held in ROCHESTER, NY or the DISTRICT 14 DEVELOPMENT CAMP to be held in CANTON, NY.
- Sectional Development Camps will try to be 2 days with a goal of a minimum of 3 ice sessions per player, and will include ADM skill sessions and 1 game.
- Camps will try to include at least one off-ice development aspect such as nutrition, or strength and conditioning.
- Specific Goaltending Sessions will be included as a part of the camp format.
- Camp curriculums will try to be consistent in all 4 zones.
- Camp staff selections are done by the G/W Zone Coordinator, and all notifications for advancement are done by the NYS G/W Coordinator.
