What do I have to do to get my free Nationals Uniform Program tickets?

Players MUST wear their Nationals provided jersey or T-shirt to the ballpark in order to receive their tickets. Kids that show up without their Nationals Uniform will not receive tickets—no exceptions. Coaches MUST wear their Nationals issued coaches' cap. Without the cap, tickets will not be given—no exceptions.

How do I get my tickets? Where and when do I go to get my tickets?

- * Tickets are only available for pick up on the day of the game, Friday, July 7.
- * Tickets are available beginning at 4:00 pm.
- * The ticket distribution location is outside of the Home Plate Gate Entrance located on the corner of South Capitol St. SE and Potomac Avenue SE. No tickets are available at Center Field or other gates.

Can I get my tickets in advance or have them held for me?

No, the tickets are only available beginning at 4:00 pm on Friday, July 7.

Can teams sit together? Can we reserve tickets for sitting together as a team?

No, advance reservations are not available. Youth players may have an opportunity to secure tickets together as a team if they arrive together or meets up at the ballpark and get in line together.

Where are the seating locations of the free tickets?

The tickets will be located throughout the ballpark in various levels and sections. The exact location of the tickets distributed to you will not be known in advance. All tickets and seating locations are provided on a first-come, first-served basis.

Can I get extra tickets for family members?

No more than two free tickets will be given to any single youth player. There are ticket windows located at the ticket distribution point, where additional tickets may be purchased. The complimentary tickets and the purchased tickets may not be seated together but the Nationals will make every attempt to seat families as close together as possible.
