

WESTWOOD LITTLE LEAGUE

Coaches Code of Conduct

Coaches will remain unconditionally supportive of the organization's commitment to the ideals of good sportsmanship, team play, honesty, loyalty, and respect for authority. Coaches will also remain sensitive to the physical and emotional well being of the players on his/her team. In order to adhere to these doctrines the coaches agree as follows that they will:

- Be positive role models.
- Display and instill in their players the principles of good sportsmanship and team play.
- Conduct themselves in a manner that best serves the interest of the players.
- Do their best to provide the players a positive experience.
- Ensure that winning and/or losing team does so in a manner which exhibits respect and good sportsmanship.
- Treat all players, parents, spectators and league officials with respect.
- Provide instruction in a manner that is constructive and supportive.
- Not ridicule or demean.
- Not tolerate behavior that endangers the health or well being of a child.
- Comply with the decisions of league officials and observe all rules, policies and procedures as established or endorsed by Westwood Little League.
- Teach the game of baseball to the best of their ability.
- Turn in their player evaluations in an accurate and timely manner and be available for the summer team try-outs if requested by the league coordinator.

The Westwood Little League Board has the right to remove any coach or assistant coach for their failure to meet the requirements of the Code of Conduct anytime throughout the season.