Burnsville Athletic Club 2015 Liability Waiver Form

This waiver pertains to all BAC LAX hosted events, including, but not limited to: Black Dog Tournament, instructional clinics, and outdoor league play. Please initial each statement and sign at bottom.

____ I Agree that prior to participating, if present I will inspect the facilities and equipment and if I believe anything to be unsafe, will immediately advise my coach or supervisor of such conditions.

____ I Acknowledge and fully understand that each player is voluntarily participating in activities that involve risk of injury (including catastrophic injury or death) which might result, not only from their own actions, inactions or negligence, but the actions, inactions, or negligence of others, the rules of play, the conditions of the premises, or any of the equipment used. This includes any risks not reasonably foreseeable to the BAC LAX.

____ I Assume all the foregoing risks, as a condition of participation and accept personal responsibility for the damages following any such injury.

____ I Unconditionally release, waive and consent, not to sue the Burnsville Athletic Club (BAC LAX), officers, directors, administrators, agents, coaches, other employees, and volunteers of the BAC LAX, sponsoring agencies, sponsors, and advertisers, US Lacrosse, Minnesota Boy's Scholastic Lacrosse Association, Ramsey County, and North Suburban Lacrosse Association. This is for any claims or losses on account of injury, including death, or damage to property, while participating in any and all of the BAC LAX official or unofficial activities, events or competitions.

____ I Accept responsibility for the coach's and/or player's decision to continue participation if suffering from injuries.

____ I Give permission for medical data to be used anonymously in medical education and published studies of injury statistics and analysis. Consent to use, without compensation, my picture, name, voice or likeness for promotional, television, radio or film coverage at BAC LAX events.

Player Conduct - Players, coaches, spectators, and parents are to conduct themselves in a manner that "Honors the Game" and demonstrates respect to other players, coaches, officials, and spectators. In becoming a member of the lacrosse community an individual assumes certain obligations and responsibilities to the game of lacrosse and its participants. The essential elements in this "Code of Conduct" are HONESTY and INTEGRITY. Those who conduct themselves in a manner that reflects these elements will bring credit to the sport of lacrosse, themselves, their teams, and their organization. It is only through such conduct that our sport can earn and maintain a positive image and make its full contribution to youth sports in the United States and around the world. The US Lacrosse Youth Council supports the following behaviors for those participating or involved in any way with US Lacrosse and youth lacrosse in general:

- The essential elements of the "Code of Conduct" must be adhered to.
- Sportsmanship and teaching the concepts of fair play are essential to the game, and must be taught and developed both at home and on the field during practices and games. Permitting, encouraging, or condoning performance that is dangerous or demeaning to a player, coach, official, spectator, or anyone connected with the function of the game is unacceptable.
- The emphasis on winning should never be placed above the value of good sportsmanship, the concepts of fair play, or the skills of the game.
- Derogatory comments are unacceptable. Use positive reinforcement with players and adults alike. It should be remembered that criticism, once made, can never be retracted.
- The safety and well are of the players are of primary importance.
- Coaches must always be aware of the tremendous influence they have on their players. They are to strive to be positive role models in dealing with young people, as well as with adults.
- Officials are expected to conduct themselves as professionals and in accordance with those guidelines and rules set forth in the applicable rule books and manuals; and in a manner that demonstrates courtesy and fairness to all parties while exercising their authority on the field.
- Adults involved with the game must never permit any one to openly or maliciously criticize, badger, harass, or threaten an official. To do so is a violation of the rules of the game and must be considered unacceptable conduct. The coach must quietly and privately address all concerns to the officials at the appropriate time as defined by the rules; and if deemed appropriate, place in writing to the official's assigning authority any significant problems with the officiating.
- Knowledge of the Rules of Lacrosse must be respected and adhered to by all who participate in the game of lacrosse, both in the letter and the spirit of the game. The Rules are designed to protect the players, provide common standards and control the game. Attempts to beat these rules, to take unfair advantage of an opponent, or to teach deliberate unsportsmanlike conduct is considered unacceptable conduct.
- Guidelines and eligibility requirements, such as age and previous level of participation, have been established to encourage and maximize participation, as well as promote safety. All who participate in the game of lacrosse must be thoroughly acquainted with these rules and regulations, and should assume the responsibility for their observance and enforcement. Attempts to circumvent eligibility rules, or to use ineligible players, shall be considered unacceptable conduct.
