

MORTON BASKETBALL COACHES' CLINIC

OPEN TO COACHES FROM ALL LEVELS – MEN AND WOMEN

Facilitated by MHS Varsity Basketball Coaches Jarrett Brown and Bob Becker

When:

Wednesday, October 23rd in the "Morton Potter Dome" from 7:00-9:00pm

Objectives & Substance:

This free of charge clinic is designed for those in the Morton School district who are currently coaching, have aspirations of coaching or just want to increase their basketball knowledge to help their son or daughter work on their game at home. Coach Becker and Coach Brown have years of valuable coaching experience to share and their goal is that you come away with a clear understanding of how they develop MHS players and teams, as well as, come away with balanced coaching philosophy.

Throughout the session the coaches will demonstrate drills and techniques utilized by the Morton coaching staff to teach and improve individual offensive and defensive skills, as well as, team offensive and defensive fundamentals and concepts. There will also be discussion on how to encourage your players to practice hard, play hard and buy into the team concept. The coaches are willing to cover any areas of basketball coaching that you would like to learn more about, so please be prepared to come with questions.

Format:

The format this year will be based on the interactive exchange of questions and ideas between the audience and the MHS Coaching Staff. The coaching staff will break down the concepts to a level that is applicable to players from elementary school through high school.

Questions: Email

jarrett.brown@morton709.org

robert.becker@morton709.org