Wednesday, January 31st, 2018

7:00 PM

UW Badgers vs. Minnesota

Kohl Center

FREE Tickets – all MAISL girls and boys basketball players, coaches and parent chaperones will receive free general admission tickets to this game. Family and friends can join in the fun by paying a small admission charge of $7.00/adult and $3.00/youth or senior at the gate on the night of the game.

Players should wear their team jerseys to show their school spirit. This is a great chance to watch Big Ten women's basketball and have fun as a team.

Coaches, here's how to get free tickets for your team: send an email to Jerry Franz gfranz62@yahoo.com and include:

- 1) The name of your school
- 2) The grade, gender and name of your team
- 3) The total number of players and the total number of coaches/parent chaperones that will need tickets (how many adults and how many youth).

DEADLINE - Requests must be received by Wednesday, January 24th, 2018 (no late orders will be processed). Tickets will be delivered to your school office by Monday, January 29th for you to pick-up (if you're uncertain about a player, coach, or parent chaperone attending, just order the extra tickets to be safe).

Team Pictures on the Big Screen: we would like your team pictures or game shots to display up on the Big Screen. If your team is attending the MAISL Night event at UW, please feel free to send up to 3 pictures to gfranz62@yahoo.com (horizontal pictures are best) and include the name and grade of the team in the photo. Please email your photos no later than Sunday, January 28th.

We cannot provide free tickets for high school students even if they are coaching a MAISL team because of NCAA recruiting rules. We ask that schools pay for these coaches' tickets should they wish to attend. We must not violate this rule.
