

LacrosseRecruits.com is a recruiting tool that players and their parents use to manage the recruiting process while dramatically increasing the exposure the player receives throughout the recruiting process. The recruiting process comes down to how many college coaches see you play and using a LacrosseRecruits.com Recruiting Package allows the player to put his profile and video in front of as many college coaches as possible in a very efficient and professional manner.

All GHS Lax Bash players can use the promotion code "ghslaxbash" at checkout to receive $50 off any recruiting package!

What college programs use LacrosseRecruits.com?

Every NCAA college lacrosse program is a registered user. Everyone from Top DI (we have had players commit to Duke, UNC, UVA, Princeton, Harvard, Brown, etc) to brand new programs looking to start their programs log into LacrosseRecruits.com everyday. Here is a page with testimonials from our members about how they used LacrosseRecruits.com to attack the recruiting process: <http://lacrosserecruits.com/blog/?cat=9>

When should I start using LacrosseRecruits.com?

The majority of our members join sometime during their sophomore year. The earlier you put yourself on the map, the more enjoyable the process will be. Using game film from your sophomore season (it is very important you get game film from your sophomore season), the player is able to create a highlight reel and send it to every college program they are interested in using LacrosseRecruits.com's integrated messaging system. Immediately, the player is on the map. As he develops as a student-athlete, the player updates the coaching community on his progress by keeping his profile up to date. During your sophomore summer and junior fall, our players develop a dialogue with a number of college programs.

The player maintains a comprehensive profile and as the player gathers more game film, he can easily upload it to his profile for college coaches to view.

Can LacrosseRecruits.com create highlight reels?

We have a full editing team that creates highlight reels for our members. Our player's highlight reels have been featured on websites such as InsideLacrosse.com, E-Lacrosse, LacrosseAllStars.com, etc. We have made about 800 highlight reels in the past year so we have it down to a science!
